NEW YORK, Aug. 31.-Three left-handed tennis players and two right-handers, William H. Tilden, 2d, and Lyle Mahan are left today to battle for premier honors in the thirty-seventh annual national lawn tennis championship today. The triumvirate of southpaws came through yesterday while Tilden's uphill fight landed him in the semi-final. Today's semi-final round will bring Lieut. S. Howard Voshell, a left-hander, who will meet America's tennis ace, R. Lindley Murray, counted upon to repeat last year's win

In the lower bracket Ichiaya Kumagae will probably dispose of Mahan and will engage William H. Tilden, 2d. The final round is set for Monday at which time it is expected the largest crowd of the tournament will be on hand.

Voshell has had two days' rest, and, is expected to be on the top of his of passing shots, were Wright down game.
